

Mary Rose Bedell

Mary Rose Bedell is art history graduate student with a background in art sales and art gallery management. Her work engages questions of art market dynamics and authenticity, especially as concerns Medieval, Old Master, and 19th Century artwork.

EXPERIENCE

Syracuse University, Syracuse, NY - Teaching Assistant

August 2019 - Present

Lead discussion sections for HOA105 / HOA106 Art History survey courses as well as managing art office logistics.

Park West Gallery, Miami, FL — Art Gallery Director

December 2017 - August 2019

Managed a commercial art gallery, including control of displays in the gallery, implementing VIP events, seminars, and auctions, and reporting sales results.

Park West Gallery, Miami, FL — Art Associate

August 2016 - December 2017

Developed relationships with clients in a sales environment, specializing in old master, modern, and contemporary paintings, sculptures, and graphic works.

Mount Holyoke College Art Museum, South Hadley, MA — Matisse Curatorial Assistantship

August 2013 - May 2014

Lead research into past and present acquisitions in the museum collection and developed museum education resources for a number of exhibitions.

EDUCATION

Syracuse University, Syracuse, NY - Masters: Art History

August 2019 - Present

Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, MA — BA: Art History, History

January 2013 - May 2016

Carver Center for Arts and Technology, Towson, MD — High School Diploma: Literary Arts

August 2008 - May 2012

Please e-mail for up-to-date
phone contact information

maryrbedell@gmail.com

maryrosebedell.com

SKILLS

Art historical knowledge

Strong communications and public speaking skills

Gallery display

Collections Management

Sales and Sales Management

Database and Excel proficiency

LANGUAGES

English, French, German

PROJECTS

Podcast presenter of The Billion Dollar Painting, published on Apple Podcasts and Spotify.

www.billiondollarpodcast.com

